The Ontario Women's Provincial Program (Team Ontario) aims to compete every year in the CWBL Women's National Championship against other women's club teams and provincial teams from across Canada.

A fundamental pillar of Team Ontario's mission is to unite women and girls from diverse regions of the province, uniting them under the banner of wheelchair basketball. Beyond the court, the program has a broader vision—to cultivate not just athletic prowess but also qualities such as leadership, teamwork, and camaraderie among its female players. It functions as a melting pot of talent and potential, where individuals come together to grow not only as athletes but also as well-rounded individuals.

Team Ontario transcends the boundaries of sport, emerging as a symbol of empowerment and inclusivity. It stands as a testament to the potential that lies within the realm of adaptive sports, breaking barriers and redefining perceptions. Through its commitment to competition, development, leadership, and camaraderie, the Ontario Women's Provincial Program not only excels on the basketball court but also contributes to the broader narrative of empowerment and equality in sports.

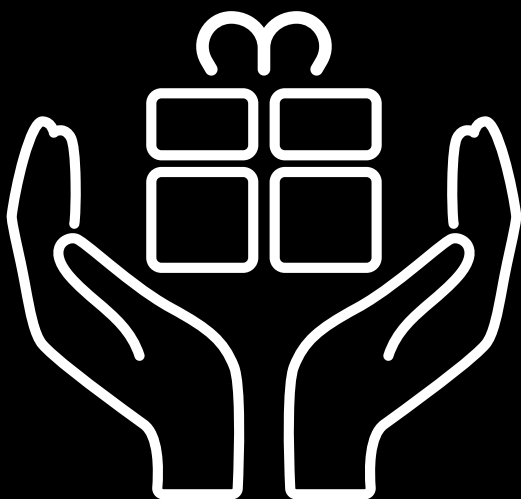

The Women's Provincial Program is led by a knowledgeable, qualified, enthusiastic, and dedicated coaching staff tasked with overseeing athlete development and program growth.
